

In This Issue:

- Homeland Security: New METs and seminars.
- Combating Terrorism Seminar: Largest and most diverse class—23 countries participated.
- Indonesia Seminar: First mobile course in over 10 years.
- Iraq: Educating National Guard Units for upcoming deployments.
- Mobile Training Teams: Papua New Guinea, Chile, Slovenia, El Salvador . . .

>> Homeland SecurityMETS:

June has been a busy month for the Center for Homeland Defense and Security (CHDS) in conducting courses via mobile education teams (MET) or holding 1-day executive seminars:

- June 1 – Wash DC (Major urban areas MET)
- June 6 – CA (Executive education seminar for State governments)
- June 16 – AZ (Major urban areas MET)
- June 20 – Utah (Governor's seminar)
- June 29 – KY (Executive education seminar for the National Sheriff's Association)

Consortium Meeting (May 24-25):

NPS hosted a highly successful National Homeland Security Consortium meeting for leaders from the Department of Homeland Security, various homeland security agencies, and national associations, May 24-25. Focus was on HSPD-8, Bioterrorism Preparedness, and Cities Readiness Programs.

>> Center for Civil Military Relations (CCMR)Combating Terrorism (May 23-June 3):

From May 23-June 3, CCMR conducted a combating terrorism seminar for 29 military and civilian officials from 22 countries. This was the largest and most diverse course yet for the in-residence "Civil-Military Responses to Terrorism" course. Represented were governments from all regions, including Yemen, Mongolia, and Tanzania. Lectures and discussions focused on how ways in which various governments manage the challenges of terrorism.

Dean's Corner>> Summer Quarter Begins:

The summer session at NPS has officially begun. We want to take this opportunity to welcome new students and new faculty members; see below. We are kicking off the Summer quarter with:

- 46 new international students from 23 countries.
- New country: Kenya

>> Congratulations:

- Professor Doug Porch – Army Award

Dr. Porch's book Path to Victory has just won the U.S. Army Historical Foundation Award for the best book on U.S. Military History (category 1898-2004). Porch is only one of three authors selected for this annual award. Congratulations! The book details the war efforts in the Mediterranean theater in WW II. <http://www.pathtovictorybook.com/>

>>Dr. Porch is the Chairman, National Security Department.

>> Welcome:

- CAPT Timothy Doorey, USN

CAPT Timothy Doorey has just joined the SIGS faculty as the new resident Senior Intelligence Officer. Doorey will oversee Navy intelligence students at NPS and teach the "Principles of Joint Operations Intelligence" class.

Doorey was the deputy director of J-2 (Intelligence) at the Joint Staff overseeing intelligence issues relating to Afghanistan, Iraq, and countries in the Middle East. His prior assignments include: Senior intelligence officer on the USS CARL VINSON and Special Assistant to GEN (Ret) Sheehan, Commander, U.S. Atlantic Command, now JFCOM.

- Professor Kent Eaton

We are pleased to welcome Dr. Kent Eaton to the National Security Affairs Department. A Latin American expert, Eaton will be teaching two classes, "Government and Politics in Latin America" and

"Comparative Economic Systems". Eaton was an assistant professor at Princeton University and a graduate of Yale (MA and PhD) and Stanford (BA).

LDESP

Leader Development & Education for Sustained Peace

Eight events focusing on Iraq, KFOR, Afghanistan, Bosnia-Herzegovina were conducted for deploying National Guard units under the LDESP program.

- June 1: Fort Carson (Iraq)
- June 5 -11: Fort Carson (Iraq)
- June 6 - 8: Indiana (Iraq)
- June 12 -16: KFOR (in-country)
- June 12-16: Bosnia-Herzegovina (in-country)
- June 21 -26: Fort Carson (Iraq)
- June 25 – 26: Camp Shelby (Afghanistan)
- June 28: Fort Carson (Iraq)

In-Residence Seminars:

Dr. Anne Clunan (Naval Postgraduate School) and BG Al-Omari (Jordan) at the Executive Seminar

Executive Seminar (June 6-17):

22 military and civilian participants from 10 countries--Botswana, Bulgaria, Colombia, Georgia, Indonesia, Jordan, Poland, Romania, Rwanda, and Slovenia--attended the annual "Defense Decision Making" seminar, June 6-17. Lectures and simulation exercises focused on the development of national strategy, threat assessment, domestic and international challenges such as stabilization and reconstruction, terrorism, and others.

Intelligence & Democracy Seminar (June 20-25):

Nine students from Georgia, Brazil, and Colombia participated in this one week seminar that examines the methods civilian authorities can use to establish effective controls over their intelligence agencies.

>> DRMI

Defense Resources Management Institute

>> Congratulations

• George Satterthwaite

Congratulations to George Satterthwaite, whose classified book, Being an Attaché: Perspectives from the Field was recently published by the Defense Intelligence College. An unclassified version will be published next year. Satterthwaite was formerly a Defense Attaché in Peru and a Naval Attaché in Indonesia and India.

• Francois Melese

Presented a workshop at the annual American Society of Military Comptrollers conference in Utah attended by over 3,000 participants.

Indonesia (June 6 - 17)

1st Mobile Course in 10 years

From June 6-17, a four person DRMI team (led by Dr. LaCivita) traveled to Jakarta to provide a two-week mobile course on the concepts of economic allocation of resources. This course marked the return of DRMI mobile education to Indonesia in over a decade. The course was timely in that the Indonesian Ministry of Defense is currently engaged in multi-year planning and budgeting decisions. 40 participants from the Ministry of Defense and various universities and institutes attended the event.

Papua New Guinea (May 23-June 3)

Maj Kandaman and LCDR Polewara, members of the Papua New Guinea Defense Force, May 23-June 3

A five-person DRMI team (led by Phil Costain) was in Papua New Guinea (PNG) to conduct a two-week mobile course that focused on efficient management of national security resources. This was the 2nd mobile course in PNG. The previous course was conducted in 1998. 42 participants from various military and civilian agencies attended the event. Course was opened by Mr. Tovaira, 1st Assistant Secretary for Policy, and a graduate of the 1998 course. The PNG's Chief of Staff spoke at the closing ceremony along with the U.S. Ambassador, Honorable Robert Fitts.

IDARM

International Defense Acquisition & Resource Management

Slovenia (May 23 – 27)

In May, IDARM conducted its first annual "International Defense Acquisition Negotiations" course in Slovenia. 19 participants from seven countries--Slovenia, Macedonia, Turkey, Bosnia-Herzegovina, Czech Republic, Latvia and Albania--attended the event. Participants were engaged in individual and group negotiations and exercises designed to improve their negotiating skills.

- Chile MET (June 13-15):

IDARM conducted a three day "Best Practices in Defense Acquisition Decision Making" seminar in Santiago, Chile. The seminar exceeded attendance expectations. There were over 40 participants for the event.

- NATO's Black Sea Conference (June 20-24):

From June 20-24, IDARM supported the Marshall Center's Black Sea Security Conference in Sofia, Bulgaria. IDARM provided content experts for working groups in four areas: maritime, air, border patrol, and civil. As a result, IDARM has been asked by the Marshall Center to assist in several events in FY 06.

Mobile Education Team (see right column)

El Salvador (April 4 – 8)

L to R: Dave Gribbin (Naval Postgraduate School), Mrs. Schwartz (American Embassy San Salvador), MajGen Goetz, USAF (Ret) (Naval Postgraduate School)

>> DRMI:

Senior International Defense Management Course

49 international military officers and civilians from 34 countries are currently attending DRMI's 4-week senior course on how best to manage limited defense resources, June 27-July 22. This is the 36th year for the senior class (participants are flag officers and top military officials). Among the mix of students are seven NPS alumni from: Colombia, Czech Republic, Denmark, Estonia, Malaysia, and Norway.

>> National Security Affairs (NSA)

Dr. Robert Looney (Pictured at left)

- Was one of two featured speakers on Iraq at MIT. A video clip of his presentation can be seen at the following web address:

<http://mitworld.mit.edu/video/261/>

- Dr. Looney's latest publication: "Postwar Iraq's Financial System," in Middle East Policy, Spring 2005

Dr. Aurel Croissant

- Presented a paper on "Democratization in Asia-Pacific: Theory and Reality," at the Univ of Zurich.
- Latest publications include: "From Transition to Defective Democracy? Mapping Asian Democratization," in Democratization, Vol 11, #5
- Contributed to various country reports on political and economic transformation in South Korea and Nepal for Bertelsmann Transformation Index (which ranks 116 developing and transition countries).

Dr. Chris Twomey

- Attended the Sino-US Security Dialogue in Shanghai in early June.
- Lectured on Asia's views of nuclear security at the Defense Threat Reduction Agency's conference.

Piombo, Jessica

- Taught a class at Hurlburt AFB on Africa issues.

>> Center for Civil Military Relations (CCMR):

(Continued from left column)

- El Salvador (April 4-8):

Dr. Bruneau, Mr. Gribbin, and MajGen Goetze, USAF (Ret) were in San Salvador to provide a seminar that focused on issues of importance to the government—counter-terrorism and the formulation of a national security strategy, April 4-9. Over 70 participants attended the seminar, including GEN Orellana, Minister of Defense, and reps from 15 different ministries. The team also met with legislators and the U.S. ambassador, Honorable Douglas Barclay.